Sir:

Applicants thank Examiner Thomas for the courtesy shown to Applicants' undersigned representative in an telephone interview conducted on November 27, 2007, regarding the subject application.

Applicants reviewed the priority dates and documents for the subject application and Dai et al. Publication No. 2005/0270491. Applicants explained that the cited Dai et al. publication is not prior art against the subject application, and that a typographical or printing error in the priority information on the front of the Dai et al. publication references a publication that does not show any elements of the claims. Applicants also asserted that applicants' invention remains under a final rejection without merit.

While agreement was not reached on allowable claims, Examiner Thomas did agree to seek input from the Examiner's Supervisor.

CONCLUSION

If the Examiner believes a telephone conference would expedite prosecution of this application, please telephone the undersigned at 650-326-2400.

Respectfully submitted,
